

How else can I support the Delta County Public Library District Foundation?

Donate to the Delta County Public Library District Foundation directly from your IRA

The Delta County Public Library Trust and Endowment Inc is a 501c3 Nonprofit Tax-Exempt Charitable Organization, Employer Identification number 03-0575382. Once you reach or pass the age of Required Minimum Distribution for your IRA you may be able to donate directly from your IRA to qualified charitable organizations like us without being subject to income tax on that portion of the direct distribution. This is called a Qualified Charitable Distribution.

If you are interested, please contact your financial advisor and see if this is right for you.

Donate Appreciated Securities to the Delta County Public Library District Foundation

When you donate publicly traded stocks to the Library Foundation that have been held long-term (owned for more than one year) you may avoid capital gains taxes. Also, you may take the full fair market value of the gift (on the date it is transferred, rather than the amount you originally paid for it) as a charitable deduction on your income taxes.

If you are interested, please contact your financial advisor and see if this is right for you.

The Delta County Public Library District Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) Tax ID #03-0575382. All donations are tax deductible.

If you would like to donate, please contact the Foundation Board at dclfoundation.org.
